

SUPPLEMENT TO NEW ROUTES PUBLISHED IN SMCJ 2019

The following routes were not included in the print version due to insufficient space.

NORTHERN HIGHLANDS NORTH

ORKNEY MAINLAND, Qui Ayre Area (HY 218 155):

Park in the normal car park for Yesnaby (HY 221 161), then follow the path south for 800m, 10mins. After you have passed the Brough and Peedie Inlet, just before you reach the quarry and Yesnaby Castle turn towards the sea and through a jumble of rocks you will arrive at Qui Ayre North (HY 218 155). All the lines here are between the quarry (to the south) where there are a few sports routes and Peedie Inlet (to the north). The rock here is predominantly very good and there is a nice variety of lines. Be aware of large westerly swells!

Qui Ayre North Geo:

The most northerly of the crags. There is a large dry geo that slopes steeply down to the sea. The climbs here are one on either side. Access can also be gained to Qui Ayre North, Cave Crag by scrambling round the bottom on the left (facing the sea).

Two Little Ducks 17m Severe. Iain Spence, Linda Somerville. Apr 2018.

A tricky climb to find, head down the open geo to the very bottom and underneath a huge overhanging prow on the right side. A little traverse scramble leads you to a big wide chimney. This line faces west and catches the evening sun. Belay from underneath a small roof. The line follows easy ledges to an open corner with few holds. Follow this and exit right avoiding the loose blocks left.

Zeskinaba 10m H. Severe. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence. Apr 2018. A north facing line that is very sheltered. Half way down the geo on the left there is a blank wall with a thin flake running up it. Follow this up and left then exit left, direct or right.

Qui Ayre North, Cave Crag:

Standing on the roof of a huge cave these routes face south and are described left to right. You can reach the crag from Qui Ayre North Geo at sea level or from an easy scramble at the other end of the crag. There is a nice big, high platform to stand on. This crag faces Qui Ayre North and gives good views of the climbs there.

Sati 9m Severe. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence. Mar 2018.

At the left end of the crag follows an easy crack with big steps to an awkward step up right then follow a crack up to finish.

Crystal Tipps 9m V.Diff. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence. Oct 2018.

To the left of a small cave this line follows a nice face with a horizontal crack running across halfway up.

Marwick's Corner 8m Severe. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence. Aug 2018.

Start up the open corner with a small slab at the back and onto a big ledge, climb the tight corner and finish out left.

Catch the Pigeon 9m Severe. Anthony Mottorshead, Jenny Mottorshead. Sep 2018.

The thin crack with nice steps alongside the blank walls.

Qui Ayre North:

These routes face north or west and can either be accessed by a scramble along the bottom or abseil into the large ledge at the west end. The crag gives good views of Qui Ayre North, Cave Crag and you can see into the cave.

Cumulus Tumulus 7m Diff. Iain Spence, Linda Somerville. Mar 2018.

Scramble down easily through a narrow gap and make a simple ascent up the easy angled slab from the bottom heading up to the large ledge.

Baby Jellyfish 8m Diff. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence, Jul 2018.

Start just below a triangular rock protruding from the wall, follow the easy angled slab and finish up slightly steeper after the large ledge.

Smiley Face, Smiley Face, Smiley Face, Poo! 10m Diff. Iain Spence, Linda Somerville, Sarah De Rees. Mar 2018.

Throwing Slugs at Deirdre 9m V. Diff. Iain Spence, Linda Somerville. Sep 2018.

Start at the centre of the westerly facing slab and follow easy ground to a ledge before finishing slightly steeper.

Postman Pat 9m Severe. Sarah De Rees, Vasco Bull. Apr 2019.

Start in the corner where the west facing slab meets the steeper north facing wall. Follow the thin crack up the slab before finishing up through the concrete-like rock.

Kakhoek 8m V.Diff. Sarah De Rees, Linda Somerville. Aug 2018.

The first route on the steeper north facing wall, climb up the big open crack.

Yescanabee 8m Severe. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence, Sarah De Rees. Mar 2018.

A steep thin crack that runs up to the right of the blank wall.

Nocanabee 8m Severe. Linda Somerville, Iain Spence. Aug 2018.

Just to the left of the small low cave, climb direct.

Tankerness:

Character: The rock is made up of horizontal bands of various quality. While generally good, the top few metres is often poorer rock. There is some lichen of various types but little Old Man's Beard. The routes avoid nesting birds and guano is a minimal problem.

Approach: Park at a passing place on a sharp bend in the road (HY 5405 1033), there is space for two cars (don't block the field entrance).

Approach 1: Walk E along the N side of a drainage trench. After passing the second trench joining from the S, cross the main trench and walk SE through a bog to reach the crag at the Hangie Bay area.

Approach 2: Walk 100m N along the road, cross the fence on the E side and walk ENE to reach the crag at the Lea Taing area (crossing another fence when nearly there). Much dryer.

Access: Various abseils offer access to comfortable belay platforms.

Some of the platforms are tidal. Abseils and belays are from large blocks or belay stakes.

Deerness:

Character: The rock has a horizontal strata with generally lots of flat holds. Cams are needed. Rock quality is good (probably due to pounding by the sea during winter storms). Much of the rock is fine-grained and very slippery when damp or wet.

Approach: Park at a large parking area at the public road end (HY 5898 0792). Follow the signed public path past the Gloup to the coast. Walk N along the clifftops for about 50m to Gloup North sector, other sectors are reached by walking N along the clifftops. Avoid the inland path as it is much wetter.

Access: Some sectors have short abseils, some have easy scrambles to get to the base. Huge gently sloping platforms at the base of the cliffs make getting to the routes easy. These platforms are extremely slippery when damp or wet.

LOWLAND OUTCROPS

GALLOWAY HILLS, Craigdews, East Quarry:

Sleekit Wa' 4m Font 6b+ . Adam Russell. 5 Sep 2018.

A very good problem up the left side of the smooth looking main wall, between the broken ground and the easy flake line. Climb direct to a crux just below the big ledge that is eased by cunning.

Dropping Off 3m Font 4*. Adam Russell. 5 Sep 2018

The short slabby wall at the right hand end of the smooth main wall where the landing steps up. Start on and climb directly above the big flat step.

The boulder at the top corner of the beach at the eastern (opposite) end of the beach/bay from Midden crag that forms a wee - you guessed it - alcove.

Seal Talks 3m Font 6b *. Adam Russell. 6 Oct 2018.

Sit start at the base of the arête on two holds one above the other. Pop to a finger jug then a fine crimp by the arête before moving straight up to a rounded juggy boss on the top out.

Black Boulder:

50m West of the alcove is a short but distinctive West facing black-brown clean cut wall with a series of sloping ledges running up to the left of a shattered blocky corner.

Boot Steps 2m Font 3. Adam Russell. 6 Oct 2018.

Walk insecurely up these sloping steps without touching the huge loose block to the right. Best done in hiking boots for maximum fun.

Sinking Pink Boulder:
