

SCOTTISH MOUNTAINEERING CLUB

PRIVACY NOTICE – information on your rights

The Scottish Mountaineering Club (SMC) takes your privacy seriously. We are a “controller” of the personal information you provide to us. This privacy notice explains your legal rights as a data subject and how to exercise them.

Third parties with access to Munro data

In addition to providing your Munro data to the National Library of Scotland, we may share the information that you have provided to us with external third parties for anonymous statistical analysis.

If the information is processed in this way on our behalf, any third parties will be subject to written contractual conditions to only process that personal information under our instruction and protect it. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that the disclosed personal information is only processed in accordance with the specified purpose.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request a copy of the information that the SMC holds about you. To make such a request, please contact the Honorary Secretary.

secretary@smc.org.uk

Complaints

If at any point you have a complaint about how we have handled your personal data, you can contact the Honorary Secretary who will investigate the matter.

If you are not satisfied with our response you can have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO).

www.ico.org.uk