

SCOTTISH MOUNTAINEERING TRUST PUBLICATIONS LTD

The following publications are published for the Scottish Mountaineering Club and Scottish Mountaineering Trust by Scottish Mountaineering Trust (Publications) Ltd. All profits go to the Scottish Mountaineering Trust, a registered charity, which supports a range of initiatives from footpath maintenance to mountaineering education and training.

	HILLWALKERS' GUIDES	PRICE	ISBN
The Grahams and Donalds Edited by Tom Prentice and Rab Anderson	2015 Reprinted in 2017 with minor amendments. Following in the footsteps of the SMC's best selling guidebooks to The Munros and The Corbetts, this handsomely illustrated guidebook describes the recommended routes to the next two principal listings of Scottish Hills; The Grahams and The Donalds. The Grahams is a list of 224 Scottish hills between 2000ft (610m) and 2500ft (762m) in height and was compiled by Fiona Torbet (née Graham) and Alan Dawson in 1992. The Donalds is a list of 140 Scottish hill summits above 2000ft (610m) in the Scottish Lowlands and was compiled by Percy Donald in 1935. Hardback, 336 pages, 320 colour photos and 200 colour maps.	£25.00	9 781907 233197
The Munros Edited by Donald Bennet & Rab Anderson	2013 (Revised Edition) Reprinted in 2017 with minor amendments. The first, the best selling and the essential guide to Scotland's 282 Munros, the complete list of mountains over 3000 feet (914m), first compiled by Hugh Munro in 1891. Packed full of information on the hills, the routes and the timings. Hardback with 294 colour illustrations and 124 maps; 282 pages.	£23.00	9 780907 521945
The Corbetts and Other Scottish Hills Edited by Rob Milne, Hamish Brown & Rab Anderson	2002 Content has been refreshed in the 2017 reprint, following height surveys and changes to access. The companion guide to The Munros, describing the recommended routes up 222 Corbetts (Scottish hills between 2500 and 3000 feet in height), together with many other popular 'lesser hills' from the Pentlands and the Campsie Fells to the Outer Hebrides. Includes over 200 colour illustrations and 187 maps. Hardback, 280 pages.	£23.00	0907 52171 1
North-West Highlands Dave Broadhead, Alec Keith & Ted Maden	2004 An essential guidebook to the northern part of Scotland, a vast area from the Great Glen to the North Coast. Comprehensive coverage of the Munros, Corbetts, Grahams and other hills; including Ardnamurchan, Knoydart, Applecross, Torridon, the Fannaichs, Coigach and Assynt. Illustrated in colour with detailed maps and sections on history, fauna, flora, geology and land use. Hardback, 352 pages.	£22.00	0907 521819
Central Highlands Peter Hodgkiss	1994 The heartland of the Scottish mountains, bounded by Rannoch Moor, the Great Glen, and Drumochter Pass. Includes Ben Nevis and the Grey Corries, The Mamores, Glen Coe and Ben Cruachan as well as the Laggan, Drumochter and Monadh Liath hills. Colour illustrations, maps, sections on history, fauna, flora, geology & land use. Hardback, 210 pages.	£18.00	0907 521444
Islands of Scotland Including Skye Derek Fabian, Graham Little & Noel Williams	1998 Detailed coverage of the hills of Skye and the islands of Scotland, among the finest mountain and seascape scenery in Europe. Illustrated in colour with maps and sections on history, fauna, flora, geology and land use. Hardback, 406 pages.	£20.00	0907 521231
The Cairngorms Adam Watson	1986 A comprehensive guide to routes on the Munros, Corbetts, Grahams and other hills in NE Scotland, from its arctic-like high plateaux, to the Moray Firth and North Sea coasts. Written by the acknowledged area expert. Illustrated in colour with maps and sections on history, fauna, flora, geology and land use. Hardback, 262 pages.	£18.00	0907 521398
Southern Highlands Donald Bennet	1992 A far-ranging guide to the area readily accessible to most of Scotland's population; from the Central Belt north to the Rannoch Moor, west to Oban, and east to Fife. 45 Munros are included. Hardback, fully illustrated in colour with detailed maps and sections on history, fauna, flora, geology and land use; 214 pages.	£17.00	0907 521347
Munro's Tables Derek Bearhop	1997 First published in 1891, this is the official list of Scotland's Munros and Munro Tops, and those who have climbed them. Includes the lists of Corbetts, Donalds and Grahams. Hardback with 37 colour illustrations & 20 maps; 167 pages	£16.00	0907 52153 3

CLIMBERS' GUIDES

Outer Hebrides Rab Anderson & Kev Howett	In production. The immaculate gneiss cliffs of Pabbay and Mingulay are but a fraction of the climbing attraction to the Outer Hebrides of Scotland; Lewis, Harris, the Uists, Sandray, Berneray and even St Kilda are among the other islands covered in this guide. The guide will also include the all-important up to date access and amenities information for each of the islands. A5 format, card covered, French Folds.		9 781907 233180
Highland Outcrops South Andy Nisbet	2016 This is the long awaited update to the Highland Outcrops (1998) guidebook. Highland Outcrops South covers crags south of Inverness and the Great Glen, including outcrops in Arrochar, Mid Argyll, Mull of Kintyre, Ardgour and Ardnamurchan. The popular crags of Craig a Barns, Glen Nevis, Binnein Shuas and Creag Dubh are updated and the guide includes over 50 new crags, covering some 700 new routes in a total of about 2500.	£28.00	9 781907 233227
Inner Hebrides &amp; Arran Colin Moody & Graham Little	2014 Climbing on the beautiful and remote-feeling islands of Arran and the Inner Hebrides is now more accessible than ever with this guide to both summer and winter climbs. Including maps, photo diagrams and information on access and amenities, this guide also has action photos that will inspire you to book a ferry immediately. The astonishing number of crags across the islands will keep climbers busy in all conditions. Card cover with flaps and page marker ribbon, A5 format, full colour throughout, with 79 action photos, 24 maps and 97 crag diagrams; 320 pages.	£25.00	9 781907 233173
Scottish Sport Climbs Edited by Andy Nisbet	2013 Written by a cast of 18 authors and coordinated by Andy Nisbet, this is the first definitive guide to sport climbing in Scotland, from the Central Belt to Shetland, and Aberdeen to Arisaig. The guide is indispensable to everyone living in and visiting Scotland, for training for trad climbing, a quick climbing fix, a family-friendly climbing day, or to salvage a climbing day when rained off the mountains. Local-recommended pubs and eateries are also detailed. Landscape format with card cover, full colour throughout. Covers 100+ crags with around 45 maps, 50 photo-diagrams and lots of action photos. Route grades from 3-9a, colour coded by grade.	£28.00	9 781907 233159
Skye Sea-Cliffs &amp; Outcrops Mark Hudson	2012 The companion guide to 'Skye The Cuillin' is an indispensable guide for any visit to Skye. The attraction of the Cuillin draws numerous climbers to the island with many ending up seeking a poor weather alternative, or a less arduous second days climbing. As a result the climbing outwith the Cuillin has probably been explored more than any other similarly remote area and there are now an equal number of routes to justify a separate guidebook. PVC encapsulated cover with page marker ribbon. Full colour throughout with 38 action pictures, 24 maps & 57 route diagrams; 336 pages.	£25.00	9 781907 233142
Skye – The Cuillin Mike Lates	2011 The Cuillin of Skye has long been regarded as one of the finest climbing areas in the UK and this fully comprehensive guide details all of the summer & winter climbs here. PVC encapsulated cover with page marker ribbon. Full colour throughout with 52 action pictures and 60 detailed photo diagrams & 7 maps; 324 pages	£25.00	9 781907 233135
Scottish Winter Climbs Compiled by Andy Nisbet, Rab Anderson & Simon Richardson	2008 Amended reprint with minor route additions and route descriptions in 2016. The only winter guidebook to cover the whole of Scotland offers a carefully chosen selection of classic Scottish winter climbs of all grades and makes this an essential guide for any winter mountaineer. PVC encapsulated cover with page marker ribbon. Full colour throughout with 90 action pictures, 79 photo-diagrams & 15 colour maps; 384 pages.	£25.00	9 780907 521983
Scottish Rock Climbs Compiled by Andy Nisbet	2005 The companion guide to Scottish Winter Climbs. An up to date selection of 1200 of the finest Scottish rock climbs neatly packed into one user friendly volume. An invaluable full colour guide with 45 action pictures, 65 photo-diagrams & 25 maps detailing the best climbs in an area currently covered by 11 comprehensive guides; 456 pages.	£25.00	0907 52186X
The Cairngorms Andy Nisbet, Allen Fyffe, John Lyal, Simon Richardson, Wilson Moir	2007 This fully comprehensive guide covers all of the summer and winter climbing in both the northern and southern Cairngorms area. PVC encapsulated cover with page marker ribbon. Full colour throughout with 51 photo-diagrams, 11 line art diagrams, 10 colour maps & 60 colour action pictures; 492 pages.	£25.00	9 780907 521969
Northern Highlands South Edited by Andy Nisbet	2007 This is the final guide in the trilogy covering the Northern Highlands trilogy and it covers an area from Torridon south to Applecross, Glen Carron, Glen Shiel and Knoydart. 66 colour photo-diagrams, 12 colour maps & 50 colour action photos. PVC softback with page marker ribbon; 396 pages	£25.00	9 780907 521976

Northern Highlands Central Edited by Andy Nisbet	2006 This guide covers the abundance of rock climbing on the popular crags around Gruinard Bay, Poolewe and Gairloch, together with the rock & ice climbing on the mountain cliffs around An Teallach and Carnmore. 50 colour photo-diagrams, 15 colour maps & 35 colour action photos. PVC softback with page marker ribbon; 444 pages.	£25.00	0907 521894
Northern Highlands North Edited by Andy Nisbet	2004 The first of three comprehensive guides detailing the rock & ice climbs of the Northern Highlands. An indispensable guide covering the climbing north of Inverness from Beinn Dearg to the north coast and eastwards to the Wick sea-cliffs. Also includes Orkney & Shetland. Covers the increasingly popular cliffs at Reiff and Ardmail. Colour photographs, route diagrams & maps; 496 pages.	£22.00	0907 521800
Lowland Outcrops Edited by Tom Prentice	2005 Covers the rock & ice climbs of the ever popular Lowland's of Scotland from Ben A'an in the Trossachs to the granite mountains and sea cliffs of Galloway. Includes Dumbarton Rock, Craigmore, the Hawkcraig, Traprain Law and many other popular venues. Colour action photographs, route diagrams and maps. 464 pages.	£22.00	0907 521843
North-East Outcrops Edited by Neil Morrison	2003 Card covered reprint. Details the rock (& some ice) climbs on the rugged coastline and inland outcrops from Dundee to Aberdeen, and north to the Moray Firth. Includes Glen Clova, the Angus Quarries and the Pass of Ballater. Route diagrams & maps; 495 pages.	£18.00	0907 521746
Ben Nevis Simon Richardson	2002 The rock & ice climbs of the world renowned Ben Nevis, together with Creag Meagaidh, the accessible Aonachs and the Central Highlands. Includes the history of climbing on the highest and hardest mountain in the UK. Colour photographs, route diagrams & maps; 350 pages.	£22.00	0907 521738
Glen Coe Rab Anderson, Ken Crocket, Dave Cuthbertson	2001 Covers the rock & ice climbs in this magnificent glen and its surrounding areas. Includes the famed Etive Slabs, Garbh Bheinn and the more recently developed Ardnamurchan peninsula. Colour pictures, extensive history, route diagrams & maps; 384 pages	£22.00	0907 521703

SCRAMBLERS' GUIDES

Highland Scrambles South Iain Thow	2017 This guide describes some of the best scrambles and easy rock climbs to be found in Scotland (outwith Skye and the Northern Highlands). The guide describes 215 routes in The Cairngorms, Lochnagar, Ben Nevis & The Mamores, Glen Coe & Glen Etive, Knoydart, Ardgour & Ardnamurchan, Creag Meagaidh & Ben Alder, Southern Highlands, Southern Uplands and on the islands of Mull, Rum and Arran. All kinds of outings are described – from short routes on the gabbro crags of Ardnamurchan to major undertakings on the ridges of Ben Nevis. A number of the outings are described for the very first time. Paperback; 416 pages; 85 photographs, 95 topo-diagrams and 28 maps.	£25.00	9 781907 233234
Skye Scrambles Noel Williams	2011 Reprinted in 2017 with corrections. This is a fully updated and enlarged colour edition of the very popular SMC guide 'Skye Scrambles' first published in 2000. The guide describes not only scrambles, but also walks and some easier rock climbs. It is the definitive guidebook to scrambling on Skye and as such it is also an essential guide for any hillwalkers' wishing to venture into the mountains of The Cuillin. There are informative introductory sections on geology, wildlife and mountaineering history. The guide is profusely illustrated with new colour maps, crag diagrams and photographs. A significant number of new outings are described and many route descriptions have been updated. The guide uses a slightly larger format than the previous guide and is also colour throughout. The traverse of the main ridge of the Cuillin is fully described and new diagrams have been created to show the crucial sections. PVC softback with pages marker ribbon, 90 colour illustrations, 90 route diagrams & 14 maps; 400 pages	£25.00	9 780907 521990
Highland Scrambles North Iain Thow	2006 Following in the footsteps of the first Skye Scrambles, this is the second in the SMC's Scramblers' Guides series, covering the Islands and mainland Scotland north of the Great Glen. One third of the scrambles have never been documented before. PVC softback cover with page marker ribbon. 75 line art diagrams, 24 colour action pictures & 15 colour maps; 264 pages.	£19.00	9 780907 521884

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Ski Mountaineering in Scotland Donald Bennet &amp; Bill Wallace	2015 Facsimile Reprint This facsimile reprint of the original guidebook to ski-mountaineering routes in Scotland is still the relevant book for this increasingly popular aspect of mountaineering. Written by two experts and illustrated with colour photographs and route maps. Hardback, 121pp with 112 photographs and 72 maps	£18.00	9 781907 233210
Hostile Habitats – Scotland’s Mountain Environment Edited by Mark Wraitham &amp; Nick Kemp	2006 Scotland’s first guide to mountain fauna, flora and landscape written exclusively for climbers’ &amp; hillwalkers’ and published by the Scottish Mountaineering Trust. Compiled by some of the country’s leading experts in their fields, this book takes an in-depth look at the upland environment of the climber &amp; hillwalker, with chapters and identification sections on climate, geology, landscape, plants, animals, birds, insects, human influences and conservation. This book has been produced with assistance from Scottish Natural Heritage and is being sold at a subsidised price. Lavishly illustrated throughout in full colour; 256 pages	£17.00	9 780907 521938
Scottish Hill Names Peter Drummond	2007 This excellent book explains the origin and the meaning of the names of Scotland’s hills, as well as how to pronounce them. It also brings together many of the legends and stories behind particular hill names. This thoroughly researched, completely revised and expanded second edition builds on the success of its predecessor. The hills of Scotland are a significant part of the landscape and the names of these hills reflect the rich social and cultural history of Scotland over the past 500 years and all who have been there. These names are a legacy of the past and this book opens the door to this fascinating world. Hard backed, 240 pages. 38 pen and ink drawings and reproductions of old maps on 8 colour pages	£16.00	9 780907 521952
The Munroist’s Companion Compiled and edited by Robin N. Campbell	1998 Essential reading for all ‘Munro-baggers’. Based on original SMC Journal material with linking commentaries by Robin Campbell. Includes a Variorum Table showing 108 years of changes to Munros Tables. Hardback with 64 mono illustrations and drawings; 328 pages.	£16.00	0907 521509
A Chance in a Million? Scottish Avalanches Bob Barton &amp; Blyth Wright	2002 An indispensable textbook for all who venture into Scotland’s winter mountains. Easy to follow guidance for winter climbers and hillwalkers of all abilities. Fully illustrated in colour and mono with tables and diagrams. Softback, 154 pages.	£15.00	0907 521592
Scottish Hill Tracks Edited by Peter Mackay, Janet Clark, Judith Lewis, John Mackay &amp; Peter Wood	2011 With a foreword by Nicholas Crane, this is the fully revised 5th edition of Scottish Hill Tracks, first published in 1947. Containing 344 routes, it is a unique resource for walkers, cyclists, riders and runners wishing to explore the network of paths, old roads and rights of way which criss-cross Scotland’s hill country, from the Borders to Caithness. Published with the Scotways and the Scottish Rights of Way and Access Society. Card covered and divided into 24 Sections, each with its own detailed colour map, this new edition contains 114 colour route photographs; 252 pages.	£18.00	9 781907 233166

THE HISTORY OF SCOTTISH CLIMBING

Mountaineering in Scotland – Years of Change Ken Crocket	2017 From Ken Crocket, author of Mountaineering in Scotland - The Early Years, come the next instalment of Mountaineering history for Scotland. This second volume covers the period from 1914 to 1971. It was a period when there were many changes in the equipment and practice of climbing in summer and winter, and there was a significant rise in the general difficulty of routes being climbed. Many new clubs were formed, and the number of participants increased dramatically. The book contains reference to the exploits of many a well known mountaineer such as Murray, Patey, Marshall and Smith, as well as many more, who were responsible for pushing up the standards in Scottish climbing. Hardback with 412 pages and 84 illustrations, many of which are published here for the first time.	£25.00	9 781907 233241
Mountaineering in Scotland – The Early Years Ken Crocket	2015 The first of a planned trilogy starts with the full story of the dawning of mountaineering in Scotland. The book breaks new ground as the comprehensive record of these early pioneers, when almost every climb was new and falls were fatal. Covering the time leading up to World War I, characters big and small are described alongside their deeds on the Scottish mountains. Hardback with 360 pages and 70 illustrations, many of which are published here for the first time.	£24.00	9 781907 233203

Ben Nevis – Britain's Highest Mountain Ken Crocket & Simon Richardson	2009 A unique history of a unique mountain whose global status far outstrips its modest altitude. This 2 nd edition updates not only the mountaineering story, but other, equally interesting aspects such as the summit observatory and early ascents. Hardback with over 400 colour and historic black & white photographs illustrations, appendices, indexes, glossary and bibliography; 416 pages.	£27.50	9 781907 233104
The Cairngorms – 100 Years of Mountaineering Greg Strange	2010 The history of the first 100 years of climbing in The Cairngorms, from 1893–1993. It is a tale of human endeavour played out among the remote corries and cliffs of Britain's premier mountain range. The book recounts the pioneering activities of climbers drawn to the high hills of The Cairngorms from all over the country and it details the continuing development of summer and winter climbing on the famous granite cliffs located there, as well as on other lesser known cliffs. Hardback with 300 contemporary and historically important black & white and colour photographs; 400 pages.	£27.50	9 781907 23311
Rising to the Challenge – 100 Years of the Ladies Scottish Climbing Club Helen Steven	2010 The LSCC pushed the boundaries for women climbers with the first woman Munroist, the first women's expedition to the Himalaya and the first women's expedition to Greenland. This is therefore a story full of interesting characters, willing to challenge the conventions of their day to discover the adventures of mountaineering; from classic summer and winter expeditions in Scotland to exploration among the greater ranges. Hardback with 96 black & white and 20 colour photographs; 176 pages.	£24.00	9 781907 233128

PDF BOOKS – Available as downloads from <http://www.smc.org.uk>

Cairngorms Scene and Unseen (pdf) Sydney Scroggie	2004 A remarkable book by a remarkable man. Left blinded and one-legged at the end of World War II, it describes his return to walk and climb in the hills. Published in book form in 1989.	£5.00	0907 521258
A Century of Scottish Mountaineering (pdf) W D Brooker	2005 An interesting anthology of the Scottish Mountaineering Club Journal 1888-1988, first published in 1988, reprinted in 1993, 372pp. PDF book version edited by Rob Milne and Ken Crocket.	£10.00	0907 521851
A History of Glenmore Lodge (pdf) Ian Thomson	2004 An appealing book to any who have attended a course at Glenmore Lodge, or who have in interest in the part Scotland's premier outdoor centre has played in the history of outdoor training. 170pp with 53 illustrations	£5.00	0907 521827

FILE DOWNLOADS

Munros GPS Data Set V.3 Gerry Bye	This GPS data set contains GPS routes for the Munros, Corbetts & Other Hills, painstakingly recorded from maps. Invaluable and time saving for anyone using a GPS for navigation in the hills. Appropriate GPS software required. Available only by download. Further details on the SMC Website at www.smc.org.uk/downloads/gps-data	£8.00
Contour Maps of the UK and Republic of Ireland	If you use a GPS and have sufficient memory, these free files allow you to use your GPS unit with contours down to 10m intervals and significant summits and trig points shown. Based on the NASA shuttle surveys, they are available free, only by direct download. Details on the SMC Website at www.smc.org.uk/downloads/contour-maps	FREE

THE SMC JOURNAL

The Scottish Mountaineering Club Journal Edited by Peter Biggar	2017 Journal – No 208 is the most recent volume of the annual Journal of the Scottish Mountaineering Club, which has maintained a continuous record of mountain activities in Scotland since 1890. Includes articles, colour photographs, New Climbs section and Munro Matters, a section including the latest additions to those who have climbed the Munros; 344 pages. Check website for further information www.smc.org.uk/journal	£14.95	9 781907 233050
---	---	--------	-----------------

THE SCOTTISH MOUNTAINEERING TRUST

All profit from the sale of SMT and SMC climbing and hillwalking guides goes to the Scottish Mountaineering Trust and provides much of the Trust's revenue. The Trust is a grant making Charity, which has for some time been helping people enjoy and appreciate mountains and mountain environments, both in Scotland and throughout the world. To date over £1,400,000 in grants has been made, a large proportion of which has come from the SMT and SMC's publishing programme. Some of the major areas which have benefited are; footpath repair & maintenance, land purchase and mountaineering education & training.

For further information on the Scottish Mountaineering Trust visit: www.smc.org.uk/trust

Distributed by:

Cordee
11 Jacknell Road
Dodwells Bridge Industrial Estate Hinckley
Leicestershire
LE10 3BS
Tel: 01455 611185
www.cordee.co.uk

Visit the Scottish Mountaineering Club Website for full details of these books and to purchase online: www.smc.org.uk. These publications are also available from bookshops and mountain equipment suppliers.